MISS WHITE TO WED LIEUT. IRWIN IN OCTOBER.

Minister Sherrill Gives Dinner to President-Elect of Argentine.

Notes of the Resorts.

The engagement of Miss Anna Louise White to Lieut. Hiram L. Irwin, U. S. N., was announced today by the parents of the bride, Commander and Mrs. William W. White. The wedding will take place early in October at the bride's home, 174 Q street northwest.

Two years ago Miss White was a debutante and since that time she has been regarded as an exceptionally attractive girl.

Lieut. Irwin, who is a son of Mr. H. M. Irwin of Franklin, Pa., is now attached to the U. S. S. North Carolina. He was on the Dolphin last winter.

Miss White and her mother have just returned to Washington, after spending the summer at Franklin, Pa., where they formerly resided.

Mr. Charles S. Sherrill, United States minister to Argentina, last night gave a dinner for Dr. Saenz Pena, president-elect of the republic, and Senora Saenz Pena. The president of the senate and of the chamber of deputies, members of the cabinet, cabinet officials and members of the diplomatic corps at the American legation in Buenos Aires were present. After the dinner a large reception was held.

After spending the summer at Atlantic City, Mr. and Mrs. William S. Knox have returned to Washington. Their daughter, Mrs. Harry S. Berry of Nashville, has also returned to her home. Their son, Mr. William S. Knox, is in the army and is now in the Philippines.

Mr. Theodore Roosevelt, with her young sons, Archie and Quentin, to home, with Admiral Taft and Col. Roosevelt, arrived at his post yesterday, after a long journey from New York. Mr. Roosevelt is now in the Philippines.

Mr. Whitelaw Reid, wife of Ambassador Reid, is now in the Philippines. She is now in the Philippines.

Mrs. Huntington Wilson entertained at luncheon yesterday.

Mrs. Robert Henderson has gone to Atlantic City to remain until October.

Dr. and Mrs. Louis C. Lehr are in Atlantic City the guests of Mr. Lehr's mother, Mrs. Conrad of Baltimore.

Mrs. Richard Wayne Parker, wife of Representative Parker of New Jersey, is visiting Mrs. Douglas Robinson at Henderson, N. Y.

Mrs. Hincley and Miss Gladys Hincley will spend the month of September at Lenox, Mass.

Mr. Oscar Straus, American ambassador to Constantinople, is now in the city. He is now in the city.

Mr. Donald McKaig of Pittsburgh is the guest of Mr. Frank Biscoe and Miss Biscoe.

Mrs. William F. Mattingly has arrived from her home in Boston on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Robert Treat Paine, Jr., and Mr. Paine at their country home at Paine's Crossing, Mass. On the morning, the Paines are taking no part in the gay social program which prevails in their vicinity.

Interest of the residents of the town, and of many from the city, was well centered at the Casino at Newport last evening, when Mrs. John H. Hannan gave a village dance. Every one was invited, and more than 1,000 persons were present from Narragansett, Pease and Wakefield, and other places.

The balcony was reserved for the village and the balcony was reserved for the village.

The villagers entered into the dance with all the enthusiasm of the village.

Among them were cab drivers, newsmen, clerks, waitresses and bell boys. From the surrounding country came the farmers and the wives and the mill hands from other villages. All were personally received by Mr. and Mrs. Hannan and entertained hospitably.

There were a buffet supper and singing by negro minstrels from New York and Nicholson, Jr., will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock, at Blank House, the country of Gen. Gillespie of Washington, next Thursday afternoon at the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. B. Allen.

The dance was opened with a grand march, led by Mrs. Hannan with her nephew, Mr. Albert S. Church. At midnight it was like a carnival with many picturesque features and the throwing of confetti.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. Nicholson will bring his bride to Washington, and they will occupy the residence at 1738 P street.
